

Take a peek inside the YACC community!

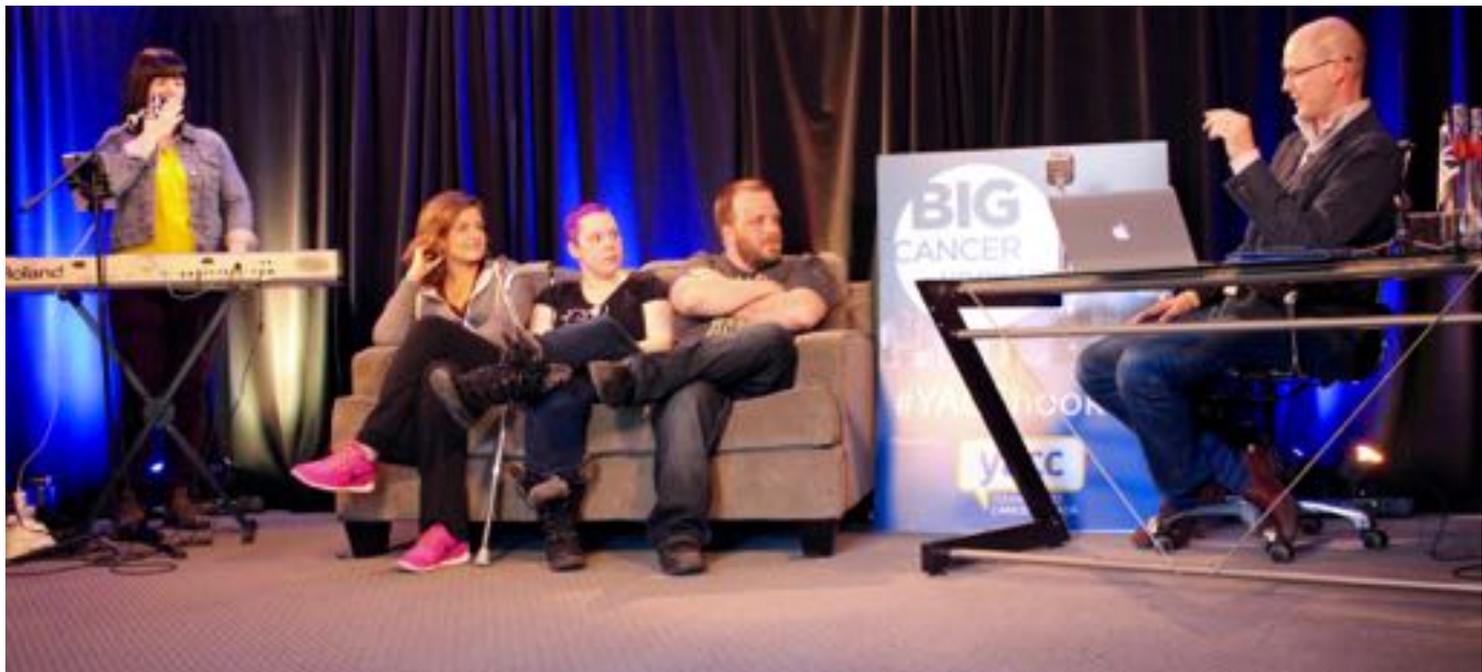

There has been a lot of entertaining, educational, thought-provoking, informative content coming out of the YACC community lately. Here are a few posts we think you'll like:

- Jody Mason hosted our second Instagram takeover on February 18. People really connected with the way he explained living with metastatic cancer in his 30s, and many of us learned a few things along the way. Email angie@youngadultcancer.ca if you would like to learn more about posting a takeover of your own!
- YACCtivist Heather Bonyngge stepped outside her comfort zone and wrote about how cancer affected her marriage and sexuality in her latest blog post.
- Alana Hicks joined team YACC as our new relationship manager!
- Danielle Taylor is posting a photo every day during Colorectal Cancer Awareness Month to explain her life as a "cancer patient in surveillance."

A quick little program update

Here are a few things that have been keeping us busy lately!

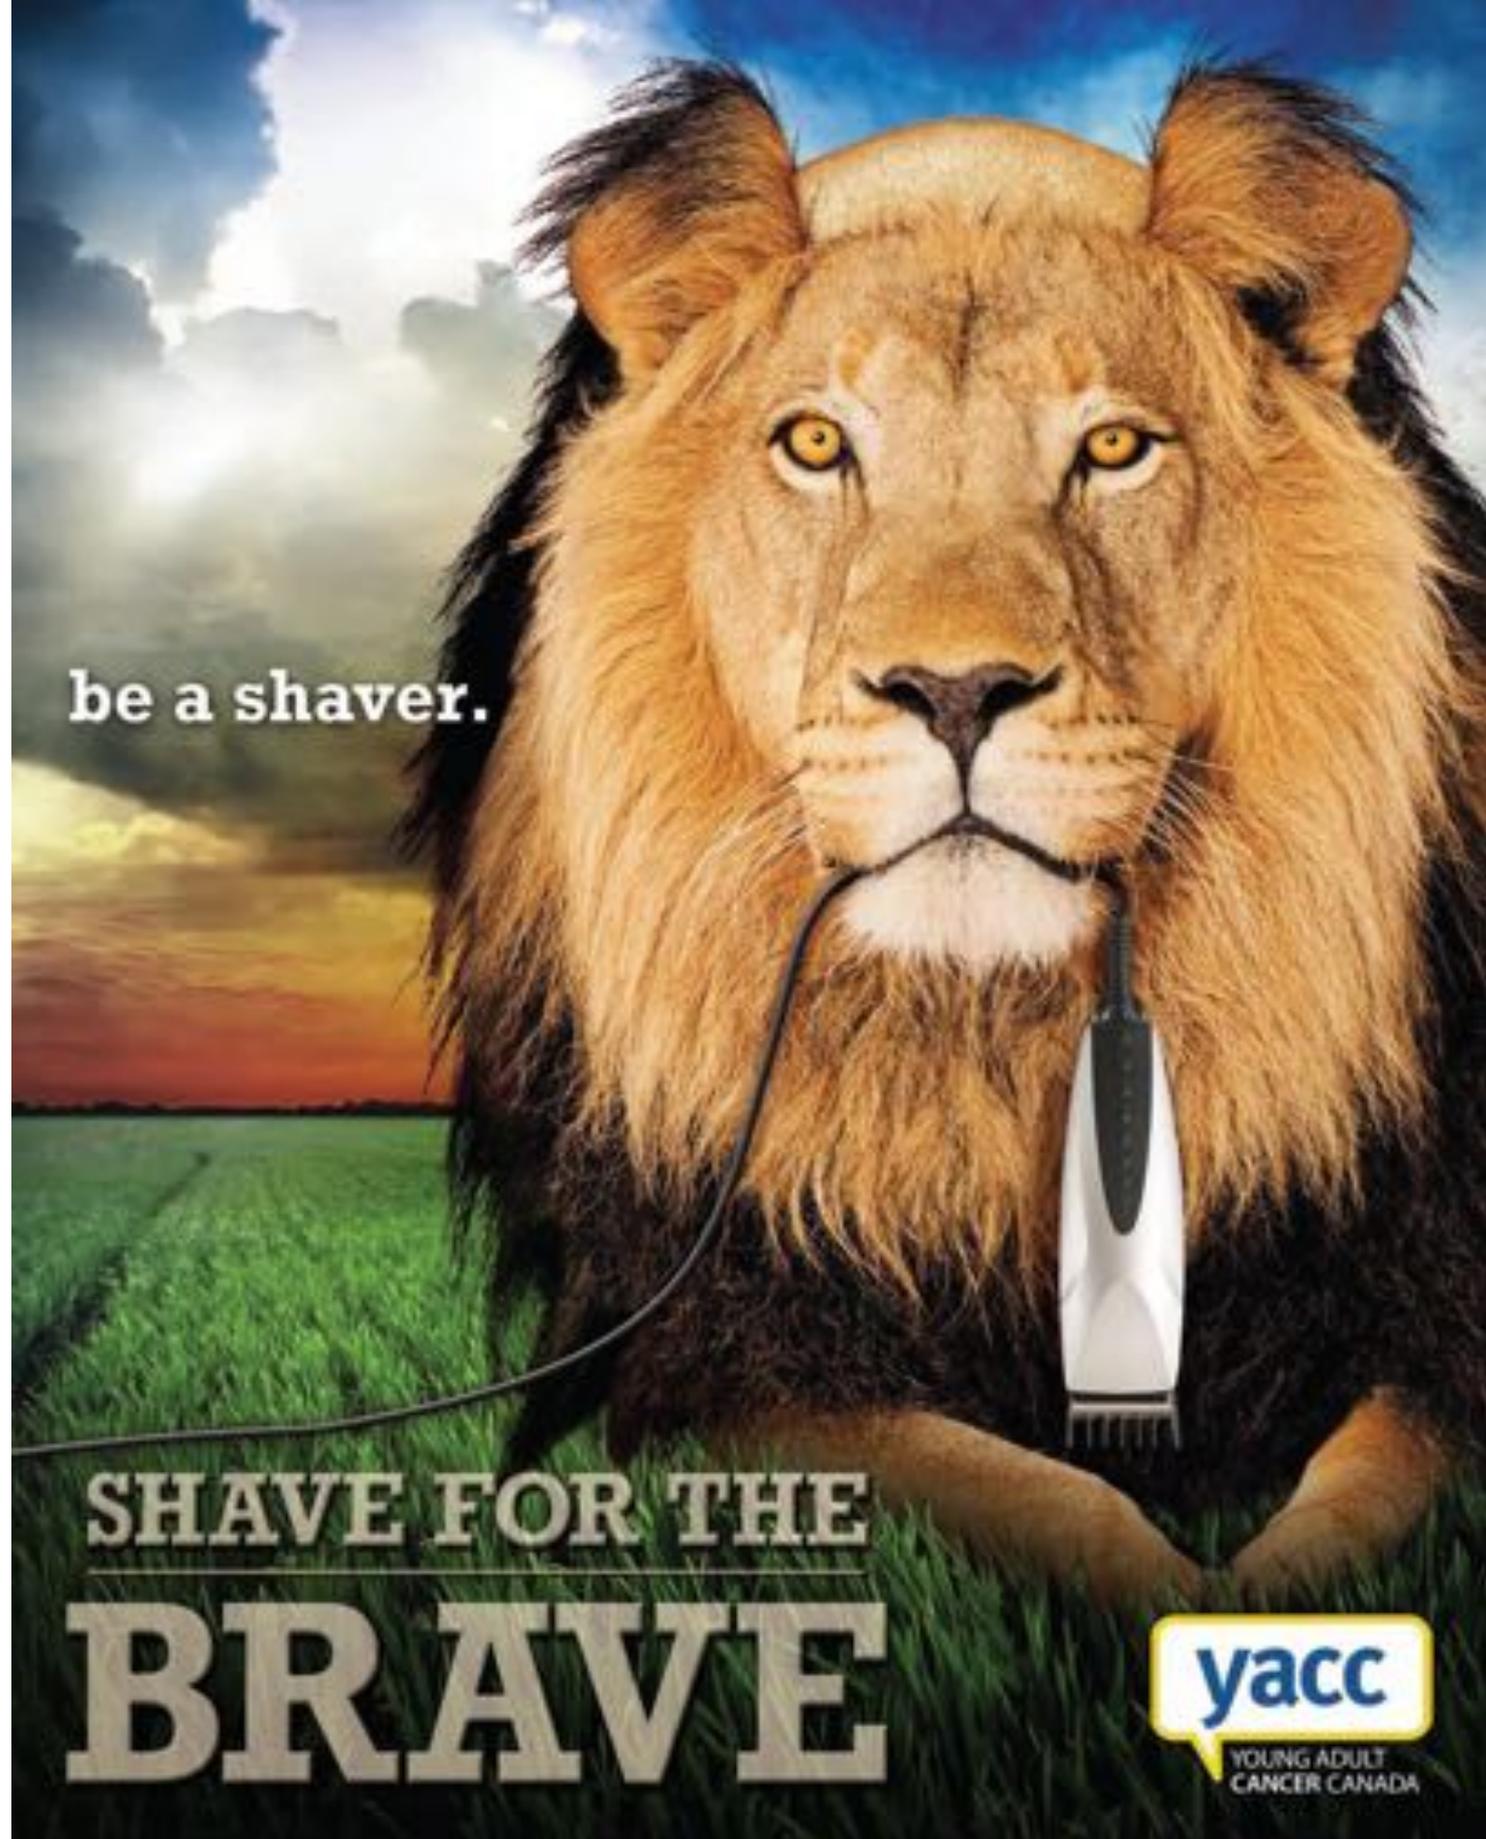

We held the Big Cancer Hook-up on Saturday, February 27. We filmed the show at our office, and groups got together to watch in St. John's, Halifax, Ottawa, Hamilton, Toronto, Manitoba, Saskatoon, Edmonton, Calgary, Vancouver, and Victoria -- as well as an independent group in Regina! YACCers and YACC supporters in the rest of the country were able to watch the webcast from home, and we'll soon share the full video via our YouTube channel. Click here to learn more about our guests, and take a sneak peek at the broadcast!

We opened registration for our 9th Survivor Conference over the weekend, and are already on our way to filling it up! First-time and returning YACCers will join us in our hometown of St. John's, NL between June 9-13 for four days of connection, workshops and presentations, and a little bit of fun in between.

If you are a young adult who was diagnosed with cancer between the ages of 15-39, and are currently between 18-39, we would love to see you (and a supporter!) in June! Register here!

Programs like the Big Cancer Hook-up and Survivor Conference wouldn't be possible without the generous support of our Shavers, donors, supporters, and volunteers, sponsors -- the list goes on! We're set to celebrate some of that support this weekend with the 11th annual St. John's Community Shave for the Brave at the Avalon Mall! If you're in the area, drop by and say hello (and pick up some Shave-themed chocolate at the Newfoundland Chocolate Company)!

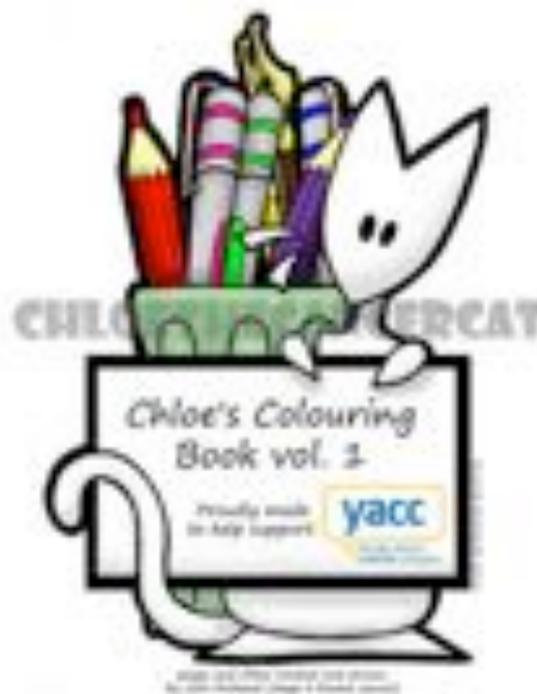

Meanwhile, schools, offices, sports teams, and more are getting ready to Shave right across the country! If you would like to host a Shave, or want to learn more, email

We value (volunteer) commitment

At our monthly team meetings, one of our crew members discusses one of our five values: strength, courage, commitment, heart, and trail-blazing. Here is Kelly's reflection from this month's meeting about why our volunteers are so amazing, and how they help us help more YACCers.
